The Parties have informed the Court that they have reached a settlement. The terms of a valid and binding settlement agreement have been stated on the record that include:

- (1) Plaintiff agrees to settle and dismiss with prejudice all claims brought or that could have been brought on behalf of himself and as representative of the Estate against the Defendant relating to the death of Clifford Meredith Rigsbee.
- (2) Defendant agrees to pay the sum of $5.25 million dollars as general damages to Plaintiff with an option to structure funds to be determined. If Plaintiff decides to structure some of the settlement, the structure company must be approved by AIG.
